

Novaia
“Corte Vaona”
Amarone della Valpolicella DOC
2003
Italy

Tasting Notes:

Notes of cherry and plum jam, nicely spiced and open, with an unusual lively aspect, almost vibrant.

Vineyard Notes:

On the hillsides of one of the sunniest slopes of Valpolicella, lies the 15th century estate of Novaia. The winery combines the old and new with its valley hillsides planted to grapes historic to the area, and at the manor itself, with its state of the art cantina in a carved out stone cellar, shaded by an ancient Yew tree. Their wines are legendary, showcasing the entire range of Valpolicella wine; from their lighter Classico's all the way to their intense and brooding Amarone.
