HARTLEY & GIBSON'S CREAM SHERRY

Origin: Jerez de la Frontera , Spain

Serving Temperature: Straight at room temperature or on-the-rocks.

Food: Served generally before or after lunch or dinner.
Also excellent in black coffee instead of cream & sugar.

Not everyone is aware that Sherry wine was first produced in Spain and that the name "Sherry" is, in fact, derived from "Jerez" (actually Jerez de la Frontera) the town in which the world famous Sherry producers are located.

One of the historic families of Jerez de la Frontera was B. Vergara whose firm has produced fine Sherries since the year 1780.

From that beginning, a dedicated attention to every detail passed on from father to son has developed a tradition of quality that has earned unsurpassed reputation among Sherry aficionados and the honor of being PURVEYORS TO HIS MAJESTY THE KING OF SPAIN.

The Macharnudo Vineyard (mentioned on the label) has been cultivated for over 550 years. It is the finest Sherry District in the world where the most expensive grapes are grown...rich, lush grapes from which truly great sherries are produced.

HARTLEY & GIBSON'S Cream Sherry is a superb Sherry from the VERGARA BOGEGAS. It is full bodied and lush without being heavy and it is sweet but not sugary. The after taste is clean and pleasant.

The extraordinary quality of HARTLEY & GIBSON'S CREAM SHERRY has been extolled by many highly regarded wine writers and we believe that it represents the most exciting Sherry value now available to the consumer.
